

Mar. 30, 1928.

Richmond Press,
Richmond, Virginia.

Gentlemen:

We are sending you today through the mail a letter to Mr. Louis A. Burgess in your care, we also enclose you a copy of this letter, which we would be pleased to have you read and advise us of the receipt of same; also advise us how to secure the proper credit for this genealogical record of the Collier family, and if you will in the future correct the next editions of these Historical facts, connected with the War of the Revolution, as appertains to our family.

Kindly let us hear from you.

Respectfully yours,

JCC:S

Enc.